(By Associated Press.)

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, Apr. 7.—According to reports received here, 400,000 persons in Jerusalem are now receiving daily rations from the American Relief Fund.

A woman engaged in relief work there writes:

"Everything costs four times as much as before, so you can imagine what a state the people are in. Our poor children look like skeletons. Bread is very dear and the pieces are very small. All the fathers have been taken away for soldiers and the mothers are miserable and weak."

An English woman who has arrived here from Palestine by way of Cyprus states that the Turks fully expect that the allies will invade the country and are devoting much energy to preparations to repel them. They have constructed numerous military roads. They have fortified the Mount of Olives and believe that they have made it impregnable.

Public executions are frequent. At Jaffa, Haly Hamis, the chief boatman of a tourist agency and the Kaves (military courier) of the American consulate, well known to all tourists in Palestine, has been hanged on a charge of espionage. Emil Kneesevich, a son of the British consular agent at Jaffa, was saved from a similar fate only by the intervention of Dr. Glazebrook, the American consul at Jerusalem. He was accused of having received letters from his father, a refugee in Egypt.

TUNGSTEN CLAIMS
ARE UNDER OPTIONWALTER BELL COMES IN AFTER EXAMINING A PARADISE
GROUP

Walter Bell, son of Senator Bell of Reese River, came in last night after a strenuous journey from Goldye in which he broke down and was compelled to halt at Midway, 22 miles from Tonopah. Repairs were made and the trip was completed early last evening.

Mr. Bell is interested in a group of tungsten claims located by Maynard & Robinson in Paradise mountains in the Fairplay mining district above Goldye, a short distance from the locations of Thos. McManus.

Walter Bell says three claims of the group were located March 18 and named respectively St. Patrick and St. Patrick No. 1 and Swan River. The Swan River was located by Walter Bell. It adjoins the McManus group. The parties interested in the late locations are Maynard, Robinson, McManus and Bell. The claims are marked by a series of parallel ledges from 30 to 100 feet apart. Some of the specimens run high and would make an 80 per cent concentrate.

The field well situated for shipping as it is a straight down hill haul to Luning and only a little over four miles to Goldye where there is a concentrator.

VARSITY OARSMEN
RACING TO-DAYSTANFORD AND WASHINGTON IN A TEST OF STRENGTH
AT SEATTLE

(By Associated Press.)

SEATTLE, Wash., Apr. 7.—The eight-oared crews of Stanford and Washington Universities race today on Lake Washington in the first test of relative oarsmanship for 1916. It is the first time, too, that the placid waters of Lake Washington have been ripped by a Stanford shell in many a day.

Veterans oppose veterans in today's race, six of the Stanford shell and five in the Washington boat. Apparently California has the advantage in experience but offsetting this is the Washington University record of perfect oarsmanship.

The crews are almost evenly matched in average weight and gross burdens in the shells. The Washington average is 176.7 pounds to the man with a live weight burden in the boat of 1,529 pounds. Stanford overshadows this slightly with an average weight of 177.6 pounds and a gross burden of 1,534 pounds.

Few men in either shell measure under six feet with the coxswains excepted, while each shell will carry a young giant measuring 6 feet 4 inches tall.

OUTLOOK IS PLEASING
TO CONGRESSMAN BELLTUNGSTEN MILL AT SPANISH
WILL BE IN FULL OPERATION
IN TWO DAYS

By Sunday the new plant of the Spanish Springs Mining company, which is operating 35 miles north of this city, will be crushing and concentrating thirty tons of tungsten ore daily, the resultant material being extremely high grade, as the ore is very tractable. At present there are fires going through the mill, as they may be easily screened from the coarse ore.

Hon. Theodore A. Bell, formerly congressman from Napa City, but now a law practitioner of San Francisco, came in from the property early this afternoon. He was too tired from his trip to go into details regarding the property, in which he is one of the largest shareholders, but he said that he is confident that the property will be successfully operated, even if the price of tungsten recedes from the present war figure.

He is also greatly pleased with the deposits of humerite and wolframite which he saw at Belmont and Round Mountain. Accompanying Mr. Bell were Dave S. Llewellyn and J. L. Stubbs, the latter being the superintendent of the Spanish Springs property.

BOOM IN PIANOS
FROM THE WARINCREASED INCOMES BEING AB-
SORBED IN THE PURCHASE OF INSTRUMENTS

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Apr. 7.—One of the curious results of the war is a very notable boom in the second-hand piano business. The reason for this is that the work of making instruments for the men at the front has resulted in many people to think of a piano who never thought they would own one and have added income is just enough for them to afford an old instrument.

"Less than two years ago," explained a dealer, "pianos, there were 30 years old, were a real drag on the market and many had to be sold at firewood prices. Now the dealers can not get enough of them to sell for very fair prices. I paid a customer the same price for a piano that he paid me for sixteen years ago."

BLINDED HUNDREDS
TO BE CARED FORLIVES BLIGHTED BY INJURIES IN-CURRED AT THE FRONT

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Apr. 7.—One of the saddest personal tragedies of the war as brought home to the British people is the long list of young soldiers and sailors who have lost their sight in the conflict. At St. Dunstons hospital for blinded soldiers and sailors there are at present about 120 such cases, officers and men, representing Canada, England, Australia, New Zealand and Belgium. In addition there are a number of men in annexes at Brighton and Torquay whose wounds, thus far have prevented their taking up work at St. Dunstons.

Never before in British history have so many young men whose eyes were able-bodied been brought together in the helpless state of blindness and the problem of handling them is entirely different from that appertaining to a home for people who have lost their sight through disease or like causes, and new methods must be applied to meet the situation.
